

BRIDGE TO HOPE

The “Bridge to Hope” is an unique seminar, hosted by UM/Sylvester Cancer Center and the Florida Brain Tumor Association. This event will empower you with knowledge and hope and is designed with plenty of time to share experiences with others who are facing similar challenges.

March 3, 2012

U/M Comprehensive Sylvester Cancer Center
Deerfield Beach, Florida, 33441

Free to the public; brain tumor survivors, families & healthcare professionals.

Highlights / Speakers

Advances in Brain Tumor Surgery
Ricardo J. Komotar, MD

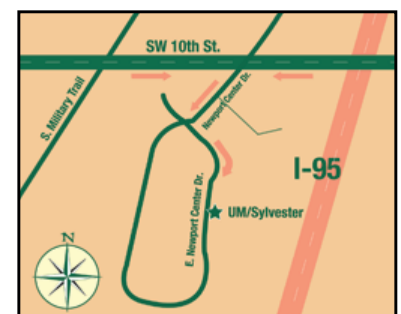

Advances in Brain Tumor Radiotherapy
Brian Lally, MD

Advances Chemotherapy
Deborah O. Heros, MD

New Exciting, Heat Shock Protein
Vaccine for Glioblastoma
Ricardo J. Komotar, MD

There IS Life After Brain Tumor
Cheri Surloff, PsyD, PhD, Robert A. Fels, PsyD

Lunch included.

Register Online
www.fbta.info

Presort Standard
U.S. Postage
PAID
Boca Raton, FL
Permit No. 1767

P.O. Box 770182
Coral Springs, FL 33077-0182

REGISTRATION BRIDGE TO HOPE

March 3, 2012

FREE to the public & to all those concerned about brain tumors.

Name _____

Address _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip _____

Phone: () _____ Cell () _____

Email: _____

(Your registration confirmation will be emailed to you)

Name badge information: (Pick up badges at registration, 9:00am)

I am a:

- Survivor
- Spouse
- Family Member
- Parent of Adult Survivor
- Healthcare Professional
- Parent of Survivor Under Age 18

I plan to attend lunch 12:00-1:00pm Lunch included.

*Additional registration forms are found on the FBTA website.

You may register at the "door"; lunch may not be available.

Please mail your complete registration form ASAP, as space is limited to:

Florida Brain Tumor Association (FBTA)
PO Box 770182 Coral Springs, Florida 33077-0182
More information: www.fbta.info OR 954-755-4307

